AROUND THE TOWN

The annual picnic of the Dog Pound U. F. A. will be held at Dog Pound on Wednesday July 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Crosland accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hillyard motored to Calgary on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Coffey and family of Sylvan Lake motored down on Friday evening, returning on Sunday accompanied by Editor and Mrs. H. E. Omond.

Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, Miss Inez and Mr. Frank Pratt and Mr. Harold Reiher, all of Three Hills were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Reiher on Sunday.

A mistake was made in our report of the fire last week. Mrs. D. MacGregor was the person who sent in the telephone message to central instead of Robert Doherty.

In our report of the big Masonic Past Master's night in last week's issue we inadvertently omitted the name of Mr. Geo. Harrison who acted as Junior Steward, and who is one of King Hiram's honored Past Masters.

The W. G. T. U. will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Helm on Thursday, May 15th, at 3 p.m. This being a Mother's meeting a special program and papers are being prepared. An invitation is extended to all ladies.

The baseball team, or part of it staged an exhibition game at Crossfield last Wednesday in which they were the exhibition. They were trimmed so badly in fact that we forgot the score. They also played a scratch game with Westerville which they managed to win.

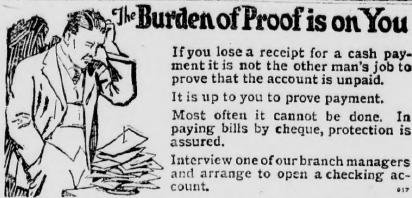

The W. G. T. U. parlor meeting which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bender on May 30th, was largely attended about 60 being present. A splendid program was rendered and reports of the district convention and the work of the local union were given. Didsbury union is very much alive. Our motto: For God and home and Canada.

The dance given by the Didsbury Girls Club in the Opera House on Friday evening was a grand success, one of the largest crowds of the season being in attendance. The net proceeds of $35 were turned over to the Athletic Association and in this time of financial stringency the aid is doubly appreciated. The ball club with the moral and financial support of the young ladies behind it should now step out and win a few games.

The much needed, long looked for and prayed for moisture made an appearance here on Monday. Up until Sunday evening we have been having the most splendid summer

CHANGE IN POSTAGE STAMPS

A number of changes in the color of Canadian postage stamps are being made to conform with the new international regulations. A straw colored one cent stamp is being issued to replace the old green one-cent stamp which has been in use many years; and as the various post offices exhaust their supply of green stamps, they will be replaced with the new issue. The red two-cent stamp is being replaced with a green stamp and should a six-cent stamp ever be issued it will take the red color hitherto distinguishing the two cent stamp. The five-cent stamp is of a violet shade, while the ten-cent stamp is blue.

Tuesday morning we got enough snow to whiten the ground, which however did not last long, and another little bit of rain. It still remains cloudy and we hope that we will get some more moisture soon. The showers have been general all through the province.

Important Changes In Taxation Announced In Budget Speech

Ottawa.—Not a seat was vacant in the House when Hon. W. S. Fielding arose to present the first budget of the present administration, but his speech as Minister of Finance. When Mr. Fielding last made a budget statement, 11 years ago, his story was one of a bounding prosperity. Today (as an aftermath of war), it was because of the gravity of the financial situation that he stressed the necessity of making his budget balanced. He had reductions to announce in his tenor's duties, but he had twice as many spending increases in taxation placed upon the "dear and nearest root" of economy; he urged that members of Parliament and the people alike should pass a self-denying ordinance. "I could not, however," Mr. Fielding hastened to add, "have anyone draw the impression that I take a gloomy view of the situation. There is, happily, a brighter side."

For the financial year 1922-23, the Finance Minister summarized the financial situation in this wise:

Estimated revenue, $322,629,000; estimated expenditure, $356,938,359.

The following gives the budget in brief:

Tariff reduction combined with increases in special taxes;

British preference increased on many items;

Few reductions in imports from United States;

Zero of last session regarding control certificates, valuation for duties and limiting depreciation on coin exchange to 50 per cent., are all repealed.

Clouds Marking Art repeated, but marking made permissible at option of Government.

Tax on sugar increased by 50 per cent.

Tax of 1 per cent. imposed on bank circulation, in addition to income tax;

Five per cent. tax on premiums paid to unlicensed insurance companies;

Tax on cheques raised to 2 cents on each $50.

Tax on telegrams raised to 5 cents.

Taxes on tobacco cigars and cigarettes revised so as to relieve chester brand and increased rates on more expensive.

Air mail, porter, etc., to pay tax of 10 per cent.

Additional tax of 5 per cent. on automobiles up to $1,200 in value; above that, 10 per cent.

Concessionary to pay tax of five per cent.

Tax reduced on matches in small boxes;

Customs rates on agricultural implements reduced by from 2½ to 5 per cent.

Increase in British preference on sugar.

Taxes on cocaine and chocolate reduced.

Reduction of 2½ per cent. in duties on woollen clothing;

Collars and cuffs, reduction of 5 per cent.

Footwear and shoes, duty reduced 25 per cent.

Reduction in duty on gasoline for fishing vessels, and on other fishing men's supplies.

Reduction of 2½ per cent. in British preference rates on cotton yarns and cotton fabrics, also on knitting goods, linen, or cotton clothing.

British "movie" films to come in at lower rate.

Machinery for saw mills reduced under the general tariff.

Excise tax of 40 cents imposed on beet sugar.

Fees of pumps and iron tubing cut in at reduced duties for mining industry.

Tire inflation and tools reduced for plowing.

Window shades reduced 2½ per cent. if British.

Group of many bills added to proposed Bill.

Banking schedule revised.

Has Faith in Canada

Duke of Devonshire is Complimentary to People of Dominion

London.—The Canadian Club of Great Britain on Empire Day entertained the Duke of Devonshire, ex-Governor-General of Canada, at luncheon which was attended by a good many Canadians and ex-Canadians, some of whom were visiting London. There were present also Ambassador Harvey of the United States; Sir Hiram Greenwood, Secretary for Ireland; Hon. E. Shortt, Home Secretary; and Col. L. C. Anson, Parliamentary Secretary for the Board of Admiralty.

Sir George Brown presided in the absence of Hon. P. C. Larkin, who is in Geneva.

Responding to the toast in his honor, the Duke said that even the months that had passed since he resumed his residence in England had not robbed him of the optimism acquired in Canada. It was easy enough to talk about Canada's natural resources but the marvellous development of the country was equally due to the character of the people and its institutions.

Temperance and Morals

Liquor Question Will Be Issue in Quebec Elections

Montreal.—There will certainly be elections. I cannot say just when, I hope they will come soon, but I certainly don't think they will be held either in June or July.

This was the feature of the speech made by Hon. J. L. Perron, Minister of Roads, addressing the rôle of members of l'Association de la Paix Libérale in the elections. He said the sale of liquor in this province is to continue under Government control or go back to individual vendors as under the old license system, is in my opinion the fundamental question and foremost that elections will be held in this province."

Mr. Perron declared that alcohol in North America was a necessity.

"We must have it, for if we did not there would be worse things. The revenue part, after all, is only a secondary matter. It is a question of temperance and morals."

The splendor of the annual musical festival can best be measured by the statement of T. Tedius Nolle, who has shown no inclination to be over-blown or prouder, but who said of this forthcoming production: "This is a festival chorus most undeniably and it is made up of magnificent material."

The United States is the world's largest consumer of choral music.

France Will Have 226 Squadrons Against Britain's 12

London.—Major W. T. Blake of the Royal Air Force, and Captain Norman MacMillan, who on the death of Sir Ross Smith took over the latter's plan to surround the world, were entertained at luncheon in London by the Daily Mail's Lord Mortimer. After brief pressings, it was announced that a private individual was financing the entire expedition. Lord Merton speaking of the serious position of British aviation said the end of 1922 would find the French with 226 air squadrons compared with Great Britain's 12.

English Meat Traders Ask Embargo Removal

Say Canadian Cattle Only Remedy for Livestock Shortage

London.—We are greatly concerned over the big shortage of livestock in the country and the high price of English meat. The only remedy is re-introduction of Canadian cattle.

Thus begins the anti-embargo resolution of the National Federation of Meat Traders. The Daily Express, in commenting on the embargo controversy, suggests Sir Arthur Grahame-Bowes and other ministers prefer home-killed meat themselves, so why imagine that other people prefer the frozen variety?

Ottawa.—Practically without discussion the House voted $1,199,000 for the maintenance of fisheries; $161,100 for steamboat inspection; $262,000 for meteorological service; and $600 for the Sorel shipyard.

Railroad Freight Rates In United States Are Reduced Ten Per Cent.

Washington.—Railroad freight rates in the United States will be reduced on July 1 by amounts equal to 10 per cent. of their present levels, under a decision of the Interstate commerce commission.

Practically all classes and commodities excluded from the reduction, these comprising the food classifications upon which reductions have been recently put into effect.

Passenger charges and railroad fares also are unchanged by today's decision.

Though a divergent view among the commission was indicated by several supplemental concurrences or dissenting opinions, the majority view of the commission appeared to be to hold the statement made in its majority and controlling opinion that a general reduction in the rate level as such, notwithstanding the conditions of the carriers, will tend to stimulate the construction under which economic and industrial development may be continued under assurance to carriers of realizing a fair return.

The great reductions in freight rates are expected to have an important bearing on importations from Canada and elsewhere. The lowering of freight rates, as viewed here, will to some extent increase imports from Canada which have had to encounter not only tariff duties but such high freight charges as to greatly restrict markets.

Inefficient Sea Power

London Telegraph Deplores Lack of Dominion Participation in Naval Matters

London.—The Daily Telegraph, in an editorial entitled "Efficiency," has deplored what has happened regarding dominion participation in pursuance of the cooperation policy between Britain and the dominions as outlined at the meeting of premiers.

Supplying the answer, it says: "Nothing, and less than nothing. The Telegraph remarks that the baby navies of Australia and Canada will, in a few months, fit all intents and purposes, cease to exist."

The newspaper continues:

"In the view of a legitimate cry for economy in this country our squadrons are being further cut down in European waters. The time is not so distant when we shall be an inefficient power by sea and the Washington standard will seemingly be a mere shadow of what it was, a small number of ships leading out in the Atlantic and the Pacific and does it suggest no reflection to Australia, New Zealand and South Africa? By joint effort they could, at least, see that the Washington standard, accepted by Great Britain and the dominions, is maintained."

Winnipeg.—Overturning of a canoe containing three members of the crew, two of whom drowned, in the Manitou Rapids, received in the drowning of Fred French, a first year student in the medical school, University of Toronto, and Albert Hale, of Winnipeg, a cook according to word received here.

Another university student, N. M. Kensis, succeeded in reaching shore after making a valiant effort to rescue French. He led him until he realized they both would be drawn over the rapids, when he was forced to relinquish his hold. French and Hale were swept over the rapids.

NEW PLANS FOR WEED CONTROL

Plans which will put weed control in the province on a new basis, have been announced by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. These plans have been under consideration for some time and the details have been made public by H. A. Craig, Deputy Minister of Agriculture. W. J. Stephen, recently appointed crops commissioner for the province, will have charge of the new work.

The newly formed plans involved not only appointment of weed inspectors but also contemplate courses of instruction for these inspectors, and a weed survey of the province which will provide a fund of practical knowledge concerning the weeds peculiar to each district and methods for their eradication, which will prove of immense value to the officials of the department in carrying out their duties.

The first step in the new system has been taken the past week in the appointment of twenty weed inspectors. As far as possible, these inspectors will be placed in charge of districts in which they are absolute strangers, such a condition tending to a better enforcement of the regulations, it is contended. The inspectors will cover all the unorganized territory in Southern Alberta, and will have charge of from 18 to 27 townships each. These inspectors are now taking their places in the field and are preparing for a preliminary survey of their territories. Contrary to former systems these inspectors will be required to put in all their time at the new work.

One of their chief duties will be the weed survey of the territories assigned to them. This survey will furnish information as to what weeds there are in each district and what weeds each farmer has to contend with. The inspectors will also study systems of eradication especially suitable to the various districts. Each inspector, in co-operation with certain farmers, will conduct experiments on eradication, so that eventually the department will have information as to the best methods as applied to each district.

The new system contemplates strict enforcement of the weeds act, and the officials in charge will insist on the farmers keeping their summerfallow clean, as well as their road allowances and fence lines. They will be urged to clean cultivation.

The department is making a strong bid for the complete co-operation of the organized municipalities who have their own weed inspectors and also of the railway companies. Letters have been written to all cities, towns and villages, and to the railway companies, who have promised full co-operation in the important work.

A convention is to be arranged for the northern districts at a date and place to be announced. The municipal inspectors of the north will be invited to the meeting.

At conventions study will be made of identification of weeds, as well as methods of eradication, and the noxious weeds act regulations.

Provision is being made for the appointment of two divisional superintendents to supervise the work of the inspectors.

B. LUTKEHAUS' HOUSE BURNED

Mr. B. Lutkehaus, who lives four miles west of Bergen, had the misfortune to have his house burned down on Saturday at about four o'clock in the afternoon. The family were all out in the garden and did not notice that the house was on fire until they saw the flames bursting out the window. They immediately tried to get in to save anything that could but the fire had too good a start and they were unable to enter the door so that the house and entire contents were burned to the ground. The origin of the fire is unknown as it was thought that there was no fire in the stove.

WHY HE COULDN'T DO IT

He was a young lawyer who had just started practicing in a small town and hung his sign outside his office door. It read: "A. Swindler." A stranger who called to consult him saw the sign, and said, "My goodness, man, look at that sign. Don't you see how it reads? Put in your first name—Alexander Ambrose or whatever it is."

"Oh, yes, I know," said the lawyer resignedly, "But I don't exactly like to do it."

"Why not?" asked the client.

"It looks mighty bad as it is What is your first name?"

"Adam."

Children's day was celebrated at the school where there was a splendid program rendered by the S. S. children, also a few selections by the grown people as well as some fine instrumentalists by the Beckner orchestra of Carstairs.

A very pleasant evening was spent last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Helm, in honour of Miss Agnes Marteuseen. A pleasant crowd of the school raters and other neighbours were present there and report having a very good time. Miss Marteuseen left our Burg next day with best wishes for her success in her new duties whatever she undertakes.

A very sad funeral took place at the home of Jacob Brown's as their little twin son died of the whooping cough. The other twin baby is in a very serious condition with the same disease. We hope to hear of its near recovery. Our sympathy goes to the Brown family on account of their loss.

Don't forget the W. C. T. U. program and supper Friday evening. Everybody come.

We are very glad to hear that the threat made by our S. B. as to resigning was only bluff as I don't know what we would do without them and I don't believe there is one left who could fill their positions as faithfully as they have done lately, they surely have shown their authority anyway, but nuf sed. We only thank them for giving their names to the public in the last weeks issue.

Who says Jutland haven't good poets? I'll say they have won't you after reading the "Sinner's Lament". But who is doing the writing that is the question.

IN MEMORIAM

In ever loving memory of my beloved husband Elton Christian, who died at his home, June 1, 1919.

Three years have passed, but none can tell

I loved so well;

One of the best whom God could send,

A loving husband, a faithful friend,

He was the one who helped me most

And now when days are dark

And friends are few,

Dear Elton, Oh how I long for you.

Nothing but memories as we journey on.

Longing for a smile of a loved one gone.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

Following the successful vote on the municipal hospital district scheme in the Grande Prairie district, plans are being made for a twenty-bed hospital. The debenture issue of the district will be $30,000. The district includes 72 townships.

Though many requests are still being received by the Agricultural Department from the southern areas for continuance of relief in the way of food and other things the Department is unable to carry on this work after June 1st since the legislature at the last session gave power to issue relief only until that date. While the government is sympathetic in this matter, it has no power to go further. Requests recently have come in asking that the government aid farmers in securing new plow shares, and such like, but the government has no power to issue relief in this regard.

Who says Jutland haven't good poets? I'll say they have won't you after reading the "Sinner's Lament". But who is doing the writing that is the question.

The boys, who rejoice in the names of Reginald and Percival, are eight years old. They are bald-headed, buck-toothed little impish devils, whose appearance smile is peculiar to twins who are so much alike that they can not be told apart and who, I suppose, due to their poor punishment, always snarl out in the wrong way. Mrs. Mills has discovered that Percival is minus a front tooth, so she feels sure that he will be the first to go. If I am any judge of human nature, as it is exhibited in boys of eight, Reginald still will lack a tooth before long. Who could blame him? I, for one, have not forgotten him I used to

Nervous Breakdown

The extreme depression and discouragement which comes over one at times is the most alarming symptom of nervous exhaustion.

This letter is a message of hope to all who find themselves in this unfortunate condition.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N.B., writes:

"For years I was in a very depressed, run-down condition, was much depressed in spirits and suffered a great deal at night. I had lost my appetite and at times I felt so drugged I certainly would go crazy. I concluded different doctors to no effect."

"A friend advised me of Dr. Chase's Nerve Feed and I can truly today say that great improvement has been made. I was in a marked change before I had finished the second box and when I had used a dozen boxes my nerves were thoroughly restored and I now feel like a new person. The terrible feelings I used to have I shall now be ready to testify to the benefits of this wonderful medicine, feeling sure that it will give to others the quick and permanent relief it has given me."

long for a "two sister exactly like me."

"So long, Mary.
Mary, we have to go now."
So long, Mary.
How we hate to see you go!
We'll be longing for you, Mary,
With our hearts full of pain.

"So long, Mary.
Don't forget to come back home!"

The incomparable girl has just succeeded in convincing the boys that this classic was written by a personal friend who was to sing as a farewell when she left for England three years ago!

"Aw, Miss Mary, can't you stay here now? We don't say 'Perrin' continually. The town's deuced Gothic, but it could stay if we could have a swell time. Gee, I wish you'd come fishing with me! Reg—where are you?"

"Sorry, I'm not going Fisher's way, so that I could take you out."

"Again I tell you England and the world are not away from us," said a member of the J.A.C. comforting proverb to the effect that you may as well be killed for a sheep as a lamb, and also realizing that there was nothing else to do. I accepted the invitation and Mary and I got right in.

"Say, Miss Mary," broke in Reginald, "was you ever in the Police Station?"

"Yes, I was, but I was never in when he was in Winnipeg. We just went down the street a little ways and 'long comes a cop an' says, 'Say, son, does your mother know you're out?' And he laughed and act we where we lived and we says Elba an' then he says, 'Well, wouldn't you kids like to take a look at the Police Station? Come right in.' So we went to the Police Station an' I'll eat my hat if them ain't the young devils in Mrs. Mills' house!"

Mary answered them, with deep regret, that she must go home as soon as I was called for, but she made up her mind to visit her mother next when they went to Winnipeg. Then Mrs. Arnold.

To go to work. Yesterday at noon three hours of uneventful travel through uninteresting country, Mrs. and I reached Elba. I do not blame Napoleon for leaving his Elba as soon as he did, but I do not think Canadian nameless, a spate of my unromantic nature. I had pictured the scene of my labours as a cosy farm house, pestling and quieting little birds where we could enjoy the freedom of Canadian life coupled with the comfort and refinement of England. But the picture vanished, never to return in the dim distance of memory.

First glance as far as I could see in three directions, and in the fourth a few scattered poplar bluffs with the meadows more or less searched out where the ground was at all flat. Mrs. Arnold, a Canadian, was equally bare-headed and crude of the little village that at first I scarcely noticed, so strong was the spell of the prairies upon me.

The Corporate Villagers of Elba consists of three grain elevators only—"elevators" I cannot tell, for they are merely storefronts for corn—grain to come from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

It takes forty men twelve months to break up a modern warship.

Some 10,000,000 eels are sold in the London market every year.

"The train waits, my lady," said Major as we stepped off the train; and then I saw, at the end of the platform, farthest from the engine, a typical Western cowboy, dressed in a suit which was half harness and half broken horses. The driver did not seem to be at all accustomed to the sight, as they were all plain-clothes, and he faltered over his shoulder to the stationmaster most of the time while the trade called for occasion, while adding, with an unconvincing air, apparently soothed remark in his horses.

My heart sank as I thought of trust in my previous letters to say nothing of my intent to the tender mete of such a careless driver and his Wild West Show steeds, but I hope I showed him my respects as I asked him if he had a place to sleep.

"No," he replied, "I don't think that any of the Fliskes are in town today." "This is strange," said I, "I telephoned them this morning."

"I think the stationmaster turned on me. There is a telegram for Mrs. Fliske lying in the office," he volume tremored. "It has her name on it twice, and it is from Mr. Fish, and it is telling them they will not know that you are coming today."

Then, seeing my look of dismay, he added, "The man will be here in about two hours, and when he comes I'll tell him that you are here. We have a boarding house in Elba now, where you will be safe but uncomfortable, and you can get off the train at 9:30 right."

I looked at Mary and she looked at me, and then we both laughed. The man smiled in sympathy, and a bold hand took mine, and the two figures wakened, and gazed at me with a condescending air that said, plainest words, "I told you so." At last I realized that I was in the hands of an old dog.

"Where is the Boarding house?" asked Mary. "Within walking distance, I presume?"

Without taking any notice of the reflection upon the size of Elba, the stationmaster picked up his bags and lifted them to the back of the wagon. "Livingston, my good man, past the house, and you can drive you over," he said.

"Livingston" now availed to a series of his words. "You get right in. Sorry I'm not going Fisher's way, so that I could take you out."

The Values of Colors

Hints for Selecting Wallpapers for Every Room

In choosing wall papers and hangings it is useful to know the values of different colors.

Yellow, for instance, enlivens things. A room papered in yellow looks larger than it really is. It gives a glint of sunlight to a dark room.

Blue is a color which contracts a room. Some shades are rather cold.

Red gives a feeling of richness.

It shows the positive side of an apartment.

Pink allied to white paint is an excellent selection for a bedroom.

Brown is good for a living room.

Grey is an unpretentious color which harmonizes beautifully with many other hues—mulberry, peacock blue or primrose.

A special despatch from Moscow announces the appointment of Leonid Krassin, Russian Bolshevik representative to London, as Soviet ambassador to Germany.

The ambassadors council has ordered the Bulgarian Government to proceed immediately with the disengagement of the Wrangled troops of Bulgarian territory and the dissolution of their military organizations.

Italy has agreed to restore to Germany the 100,000 lire all German property in Italy seized during the war except some which has already been surrendered for public utility, says a despatch to the London Times from Rome.

The first Jewish municipal bond is due in history, amounting to £300,000, has been authorized by the Palestine government for the township of Tel-Aviv, the self-contained "Jewish municipality" near Jaffa. The obligations are secured by taxation; the bonds being issued at 6 per cent., repayable in 20 years.

Quick Work in Germany

Trees Being Transformed Into Newsprint Paper Within a Single Day

Trees on which birds perch their morning song are turned into newsprint paper and sold as midday editions on the same day in certain towns of the Harz district, says the Papierfabrikant, the leading German papermakers' organ.

The exact time taken in the process is 3 hours 25 minutes. The trees were felled at 7:30 a.m., peeled and turned into paper by 9:30, rushed in a motor truck two and one-half miles to the printing office and at 11 o'clock newspaper boys were crying the heat sheet on the streets.

CHILDHOOD INDIGESTION

Nothing is more common in childhood than indigestion. Nothing is more vexing than the constant pain or more likely to have the way to dangerous disease. Fully nine-tenths of all the minor ills of childhood have their root in indigestion. There is no medicine better than one tablet of Baby's Own Tablets in relieving this trouble. They have proved of benefit in thousands of homes. Concerning them Mrs. Anna Louise Williams of Conception, Que., writes: "My baby was a great sufferer from indigestion, but the Tablets soon set her right and I am sure she is a better baby now." Baby's Own Tablets are sold to medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mother's Worm Powders are the medicine for children who are soonest suffering from the ravages of worms. They immediately after the stomachic conditions under which the worms are found, cleanse the entire system, and at the same time, they are potent in their effect upon the digestive organs, restoring them to healthful operation and ensuring immunity from future disorders from such a cause.

As a vermicide an excellent preparation is Mother's Worm Extract. It has saved the lives of countless children.

MISS MARGUERITE C. OLEARY, of Reading, Pa., who says she has gained 100 pounds and can hardly get up, wants to express her gratitude to the good the medicine did her.

"I am so happy over what Draper has done for me I can hardly find words to express my thanks," said Miss Marguerite C. Oleary, who lives with her parents at 1223 Chestnut St., Reading, Pa. "I wasn't exactly well, would be半病半好, but in about four months I got well again, sometimes not so well and thereafter I could hardly hold up my head. I was so nervous the telephone left me so I would tremble like a leaf."

"I needed something to build me up and give me strength and energy, and that is what Draper's medicine did. It gave me a new appetite and banished my depression. I gained eight pounds, the comb turned back to my new, my hair became dark and shiny again as well as I ever did in my life." It is simply wonderful that medicine could make such a big change in any one. My friends and relatives are surprised at the results I get from Draper's wonder, for I look like a different person. Tambie is grand, and I never intend to miss a chance to say a good word about it."

Tambie is sold by all good druggists.

Soldier Settlers Increase Acreage

Last year's crop average put in by soldier settlers under the Soldier Settlement Board will be increased this year by more than 10,000 acres, according to the District Superintendent of the Board. The acreage sown last year by soldier settlers was 120,000 acres, and this year it is expected to exceed 130,000 acres.

No matter how deplorable the crop may be, it must yield to Holloway Corn Remover if used as directed.

A Few of the World's Lofty Peaks

Some of Nature's Most Gigantic Works Along Line of C.P.R.

The Canadian Pacific Rockies comprise some of Nature's most gigantic works. This can better be visualized when it is said that in the various mountain ranges that make up the Canadian Pacific Rockies, there are, according to Government measurement, no less than 300 mountain peaks over 4,000 feet in height above sea level. The Government list includes only those peaks which bear names, and it does not profess to include all the other mountain summits that have not been named or measured. Of those listed there are 312 over 7,000 feet, 105 over 8,000 feet, 291 over 9,000 feet, 117 over 10,000 feet, 44 over 11,000 feet, 3 over 12,000 feet and 1 over 13,000 feet.

A great many of these majestic peaks are visible from the train, while others may be explored at leisure during the stay at any of the many beautiful resorts such as Banff, Lake Louise and Glacier.

Low summer tourist tickets are on sale daily to Vancouver, Victoria and other Pacific Coast points, which allow stopovers at any or all of the mountain resorts.

The trip through the Canadian Pacific Rockies to the Pacific Coast ranks among the finest in the world, with nothing to beat out during the summer months.

Four transcontinental trains each way daily will be operated by the Canadian Pacific Railway this summer through the Rockies, each equipped with open top observation cars. This service will include Canada's finest and fastest transcontinental train "The Trans Canada Limited."

In certain parts of Russia the mail is carried by buffaloes. This animal is picked for the service because of his very fat tail, which enables him to travel where horses would sink.

D. H. S. NOTES

We must be calm, resolute and brave. Each succeeding moment draws us closer to excitement—but smile! Holidays come next.

"Love thy neighbour as thyself" surely was not meant to be obeyed in High School. If it was, it ain't.

Grade X—"is" never did never does and never will, take an object.

Do you recognize any of these remarks? "Quick, quick, if you please, mademoiselle Apame." Sh! Sh! Sh! Too much talking there Vera." "Now get this right at your finger tips class." "Studying hard, Miss Wilson?" "You try the 24th question, if you don't mind, Laura." "Miss Larson are you talking or chewing gum?"

You know, Grade IX is actually almost as persevering, industrious and good-natured as Grade XII—or why is it that they remain no more in rooms 1 and 3. Can it be that tennis collides with duty? We are thankful that summer is here even if duty is not.

It takes sixty-five muscles of the face to make a frown but only thirteen to make a smile. Why waste energy? Keep smiling.

"D" STANDS FOR SEVERAL THINGS

"What is the meaning of that big 'D' on the dustbin?" Asked the new servant.

The haughty footman replied: "Damsel, the 'D' displayed on the dustbin denotes that the despairing domestics of this duchy domicile desire that the deserving dustmen during their daily diversions will deem it their delightful duty to dislodge deliberately and deftly the dirt and dust deposited in that disagreeable dustbin."
